Computer code of conduct

Those using the ICT facilities at Physis Heathgates Academy agree:

- To handle all computer equipment carefully.
- Not to connect any hardware to school equipment, without the permission of the member of staff in charge of the individual machine.
- Not to access other people's files unless permission has been given.
- Only to use the school's computers for schoolwork and homework unless permission has been granted otherwise.
- To report any misuse of computers they see to a member of staff.
- Not to carry out any action on school ICT facilities that infringes copyright law.
- To follow the school's Code of Conduct for using the Internet.

Code of Conduct for Using the Internet

- 1 Students using the World Wide Web should not deliberately seek out offensive materials. If any student encounters any such material accidentally, he/she should report it immediately to a teacher.
- 2 Students must ask permission before accessing the Internet and have a clear idea why they are using it. Supervision will be necessary at all times unless the teacher decides otherwise.
- 3 Social media sites cannot be used.
- 4 No student should use the school's ICT facilities to purchase any goods or services on-line or carry out any other kind of financial transaction.

- Students choosing not to comply will be denied access to Internet resources.
